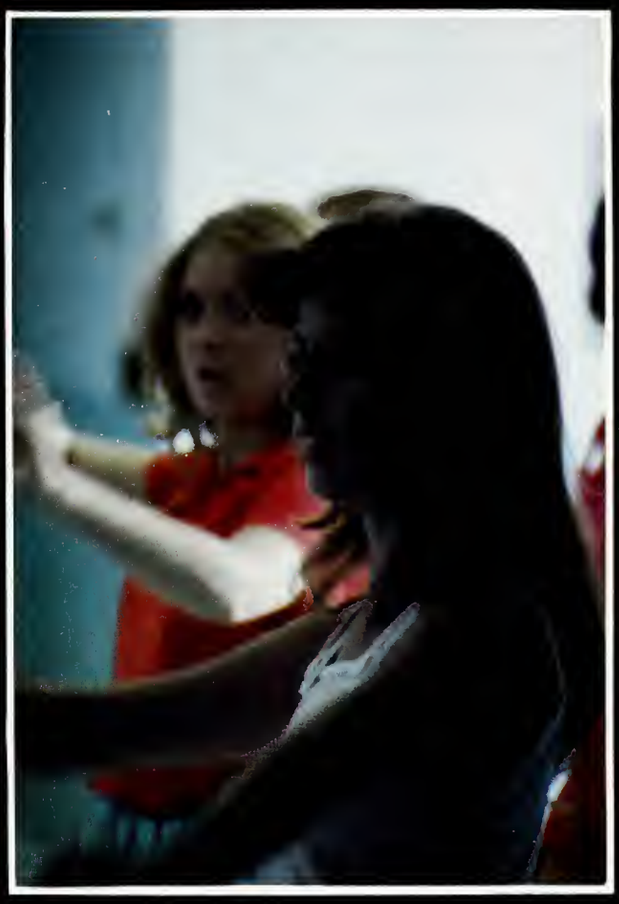
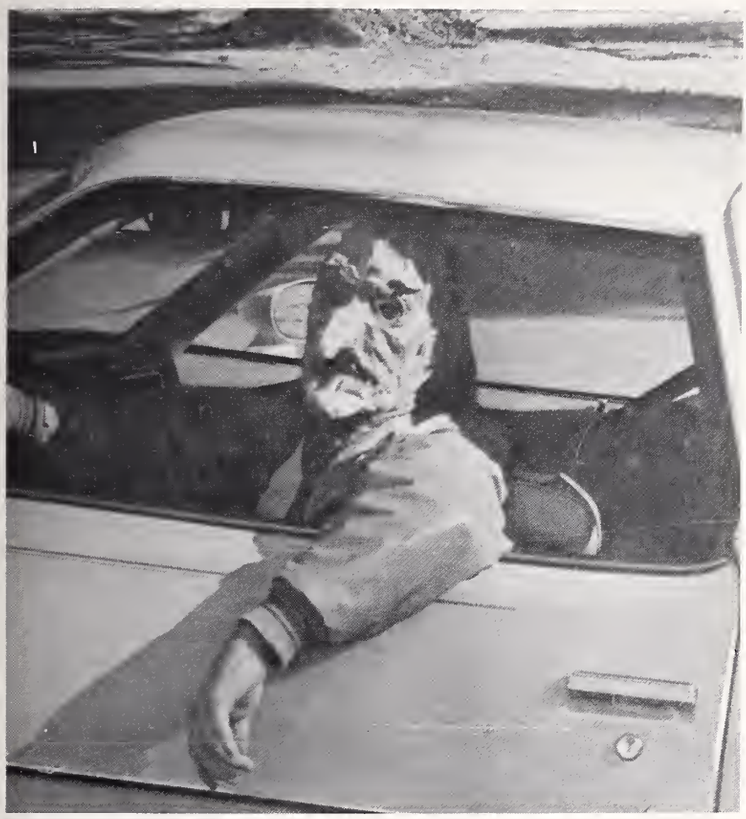
1978-79 Trillium presents FIFTY YEARS of CLJC



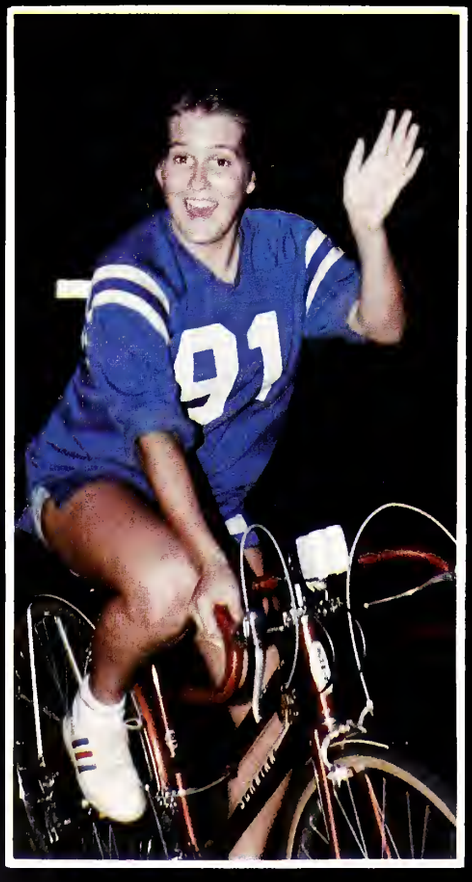
Copiah-Lincoln Junior College

Wesson Campus and Natchez Campus

Wesson-Natchez, Mississippi



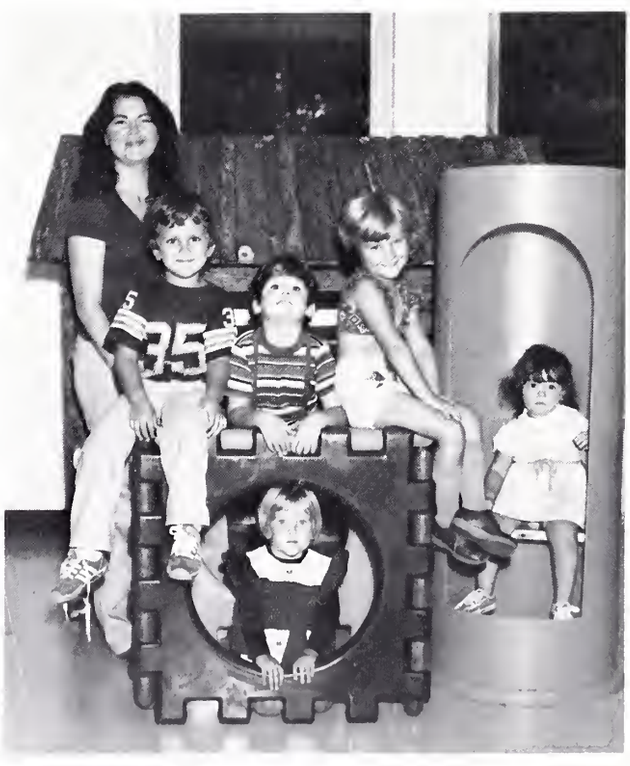
We do not remember days or past years,
We remember moments.



91

one of a kind
BANK OF HAZLEHURST

Memories, formed daily, fade as time elapses . . .
Daily routine in years to come may be reflected in a game of pool in the rec hall, an old, fading church showing signs of wear, a hard-fought football contest, being alone, or with friends . . .



WIZARD!
WIZARD!

There is beauty all about us . . . Flowers
below and songs above . . . . .
Oh, the world is full of beauty, when the heart is full of love . . .

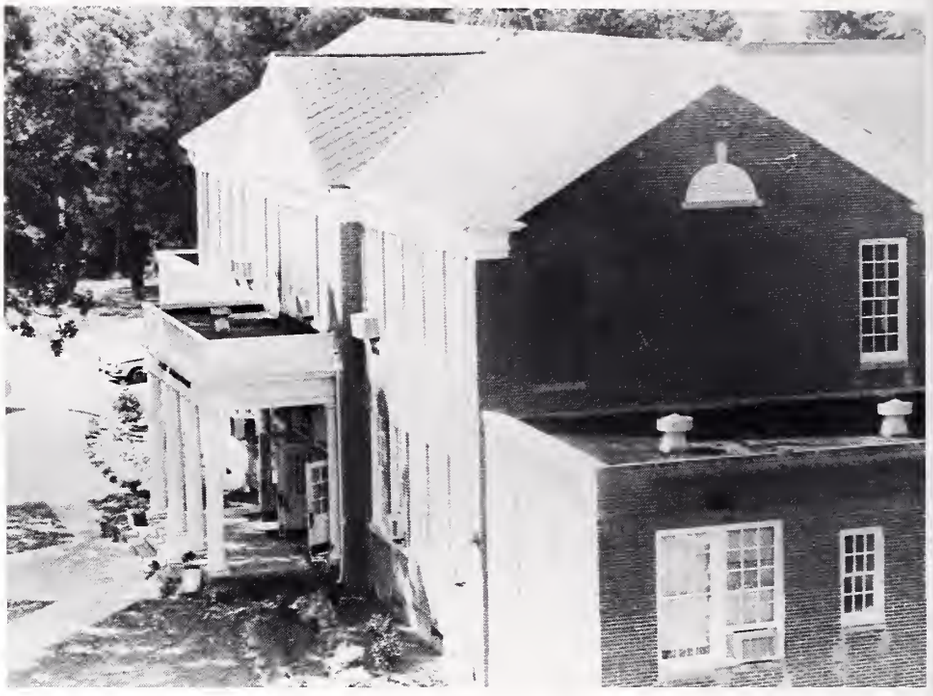
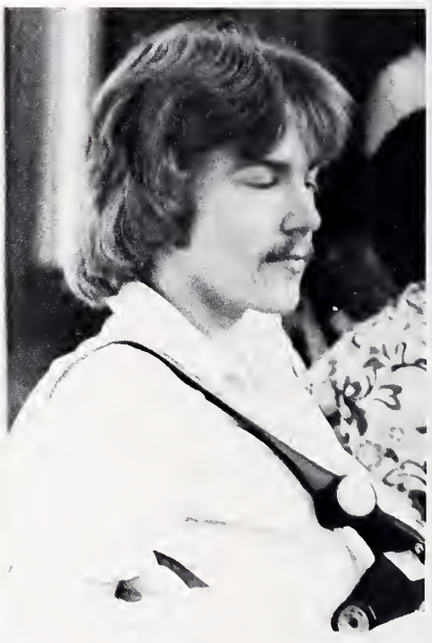
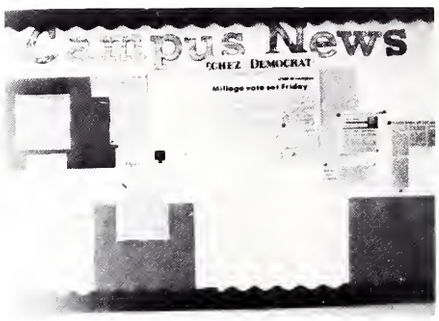
The special days are etched in our minds . . .
Not as events, but as waves of sound and flashes of color.

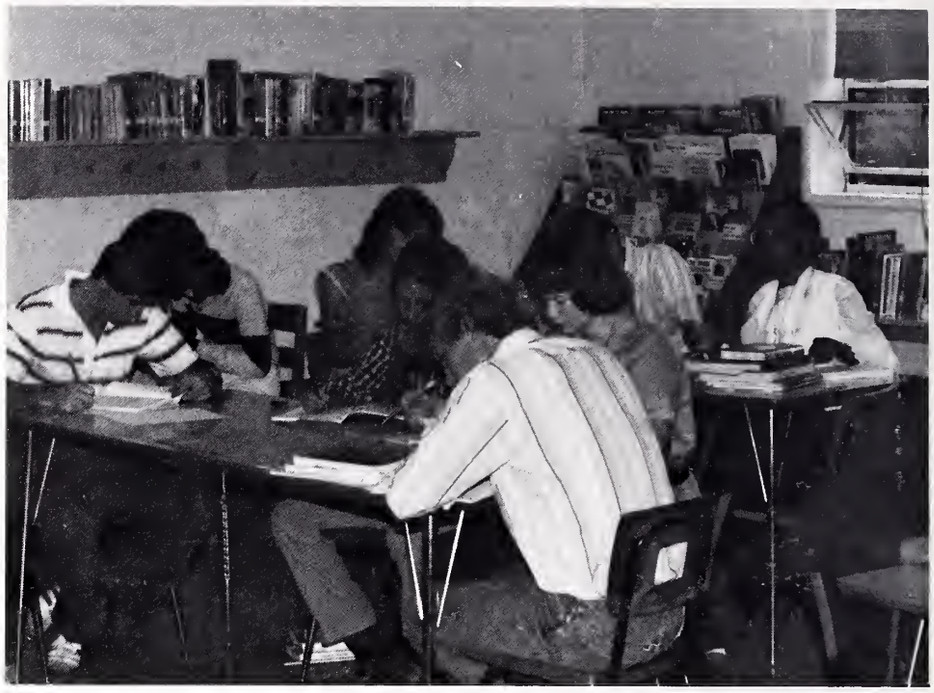


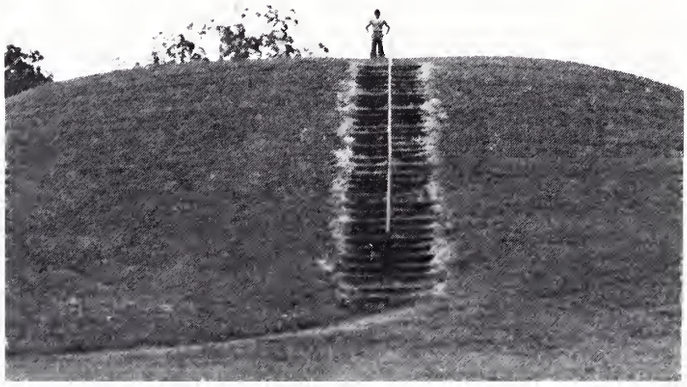


"Happiness . . . . when pursued,
is always
just beyond your grasp,
but, if you will
sit down quietly,
it may alight upon you."
Hawthorne

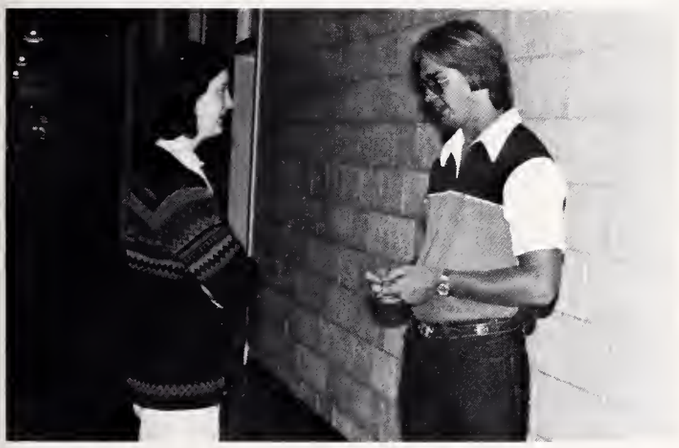
The beauty of historic Natchez on the Mighty Mississippi . . . . .
The old with the new . . . a look toward the future. A dew drop on a rose, a flower, antebellum homes, study in the library all reflect today.







A stroll between buildings after class,
a game in the Hob Nob,
Meeting a friend, making a date,
visiting landmarks, keeping abreast with campus happenings . . . . This is Natchez.



Take time to enjoy the beauty of our existence."

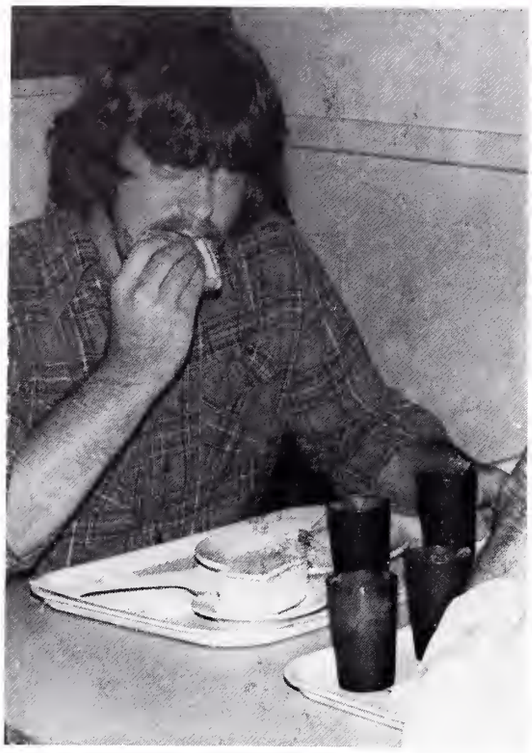
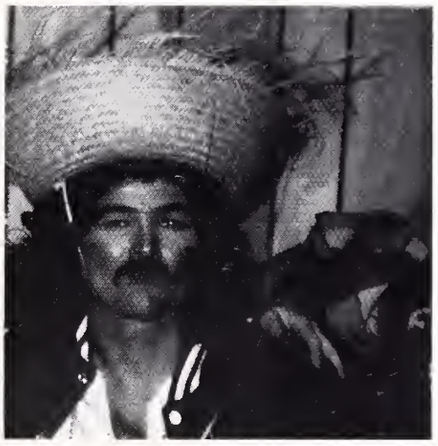
Not many of us are material for greatness, according to the general acceptance of the term, but each has something to give to justify the gift of life. The humblest can become kindly and easy to live with.



Copiah-Lincoln Student Body and Faculty

Future hopes are promises from yesterday.



"Go placidly amid the noise
and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence."

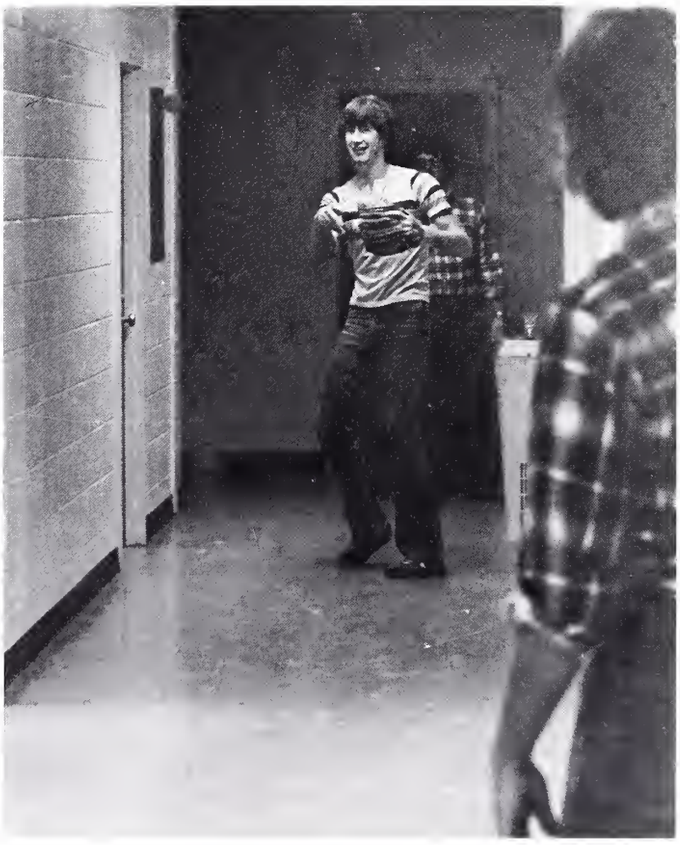
Max Ehrmann



Co-Lin has provided education for thousands during the past 50 years. Through its doors have passed students who have gone on to make well-known names for themselves . . . memories of CLJC live in the minds of every person who has ever attended the college. Co-Lin through the years has been a melting pot and will continue, long after we have left.

Dedication goes to class of 1928

Celebrating its 50th onniversory during 1978's homecoming wos the Closs of 1928. From left to right are Jesse Sondifer, Wesson; Eulo Borron Robinson, Jockson; Fred E. Copiah-Lincoln Junior College, recognized for its academics, vocational-technical programs, activities, and athletics during the years, became fifty years old during the 1978-79 school session. Through its doors have passed thousands of young men and women. Through the lean years of its humble beginnings, the depression years, the war years when many students did not return home, the rebuilding years, and through the years of continued growth, Co-Lin has survived. Students have gone on to become nationally-known in many fields, well-known in state politics, business, industry, education, and in other areas. With this in mind, we, the editors of the 1979 Trillium, wish to dedicate this book to the first class to attend Copiah-Lincoln, the Class of 1928.

Alma Mater

Hail, Copiah-Lincoln!
Sons and daughters true
Pledge thee our love;
We'll sing thy praise anew.
Faithfully and loyally
We'll ever honor thee;
We'll push thy colors on
To Victory.

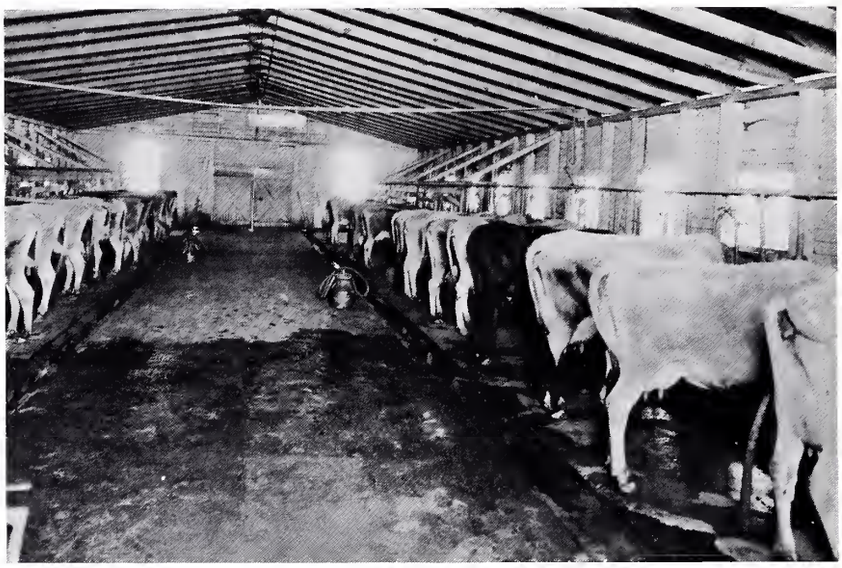
FIFTY YEARS

A pictoral salute to Copiah-Lincoln's

The lobby of old Stevens Hall; play day; the faculty house; the National Junior College Basketball tournament in 1974; Co-Lin Players' productions over the years; a view above of Stevens Hall during the early 30s (note the car); a sketch of Co-Lin during 1928, the first year; stunt night; skating in the old 'rec' hall (now the grill) - - - - these are just a few pictures to remind us of the rich history of Copiah-Lincoln. Fifty years of service . . . . what a change there's been.

past 50 years as a junior college

Early athletic teams excel, students work on campus



Located where the bookstore and grill now are, the Girl's Reserve Hut was the location of social events for women during the early years of the college. Miss Fannie Callendar, for whom the cafeteria is named, was a long-time manager, well remembered for her grits and biscuits. The early athletic teams excelled in football, baseball, track, and basketball. During the first ten years of the college's history, the football team won seven state championships. The drama club, the debate club, the glee club, among others, also won many state championships during the formative years of the college. Students in the early years recall the dairy, with the herd of cows to be milked; male students worked on the college farm and at the dairy, while female students worked in the cafeteria under the watchful eye of Miss Callendar.

Photos reflect history, changes through the years

A sketch of the campus in 1953, the silver anniversary, indicates the growth since the founding in 1928. A typical dormitory room, the cheerleaders in 1958, an early basketball team in the 30s, and a shot of the Wolves playing in the National Junior College Basketball Tournament in Hutchinson, Kansas, in 1974 where they placed 11th in the nation after having been third nationally in the polls, all reflect a bit of 50 years.

Five have served as president of CLJC

Lawrence Russell Ellzey
(1928-1932)

James Milton Ewing
(1932-1956)

Willie H. Smith
Acting President
(1943-1945)

Francis Marion Fortenberry
(1956-1968)

Since its beginning in 1928, five men have served as President of Copiah-Lincoln Junior College. L. Russell Ellzey who was serving as superintendent of the agricultural high school was named first president of the junior college division. He was elected to the United States Congress in 1932 and resigned. James M. Ewing, who was assistant superintendent, dean and registrar, coach and agriculture teacher, was named president on March 18, 1932. He served until January 22, 1943, when he was granted a military leave. Willie H. Smith was named acting president from then until October 10, 1945, at which time Dr. Ewing returned to serve as president until August 1956. He was chosen as president of Delta State University and F. M. Fortenberry, who had served as teacher, coach, athletic director, and dean of men, was elected in his place. Fortenberry, who was instrumental in adding vocational-technical programs, resigned October 26, 1967, to become supervisor for the Mississippi Public Junior Colleges. Dr. Billy B. Thames was unanimously chosen and began his term as Copiah-Lincoln's fifth president on January 20, 1968. Aware of the bright future awaiting Mississippi junior colleges, Copiah-Lincoln began a ten-year program of expansion, adding eleven new buildings, additional recreational and athletic facilities, and making major renovations in existing buildings. In the fall of 1972 the Natchez campus of Copiah-Lincoln was established. Co-Lin's future continues to be bright under Dr. Thames' leadership.
